

The Institute of Clinical Simulation
The Hong Kong College of Anaesthesiologists

Advanced and Difficult Airway Management
(ADAM-D) Workshop for Doctors 2009

The Advanced & Difficult Airway Management (ADAM) Workshop for doctors aims to equip medical professionals with up-to-date knowledge and skills to provide the most optimal and safest patient care during critical airway management. Different devices and techniques will be introduced, and different strategies to handle different airway crisis will be practiced.

Date:	28 March, 6 June, 26 September, 19 December 2009 (Four identical workshops)
Time:	08:30am to 13:00pm
Venue:	The Institute of Clinical Simulation, 3/F, North District Hospital
Course fee:	HK$1000
CME accreditations:	Pending
Class Capacity:	16 persons (First come first served basis)
Format:	Pre-workshop reading, lectures, small group hands-on practical stations & problem-solving session led by trained instructors in airway management.
Target participants:	This workshop is suitable for doctors working in AED, Intensive & Critical Care Units, Operating Theatre, Medical and Surgical Wards.

Application form can be downloaded from HKCA website: www.hkca.edu.hk or Department of Anaesthesiology & Operating Services NDH Intranet:
<http://ndh.home/departement/anaes/ics.html>

5 free registration will be given to NTEC staff for each class on first come first served basis.
Please register 3 weeks before your intended course date.
For enquiries, please contact ICS Manager Ms. Katherine Ip at 2683-8307 or email ipy530@ha.org.hk